

Trilateral Committee for Wildlife and Ecosystem Conservation & Management
San Diego, California – Plenary Session – Wednesday, April 15

Monarch Butterfly Conservation in North America

9:00 - 9:15	Welcome & Introductions Opening Remarks: Trilateral Collaboration to Conserve the Monarch	Dan Ashe Director U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
9:15-9:30	Mexico's Monarch Strategy	Luis Fueyo Mac Donald National Commissioner Comisión Nacional de Áreas Naturales Protegidas
9:30-9:45	Canada's Monarch Strategy	Sue Milburn-Hopwood Director General Canadian Wildlife Service
9:45-10:00	USFWS Monarch Strategy: Conservation Action for the Eastern Population & Western Population	Tom Melius Regional Director USFWS, Midwest Region Dr. Benjamin Tuggle Regional Director USFWS Southwest Region Ren Lohofener Regional Director USFWS, Pacific Southwest Region
10:00-10:35	Public-Private Partnerships for Monarch Conservation
	▪ Easements & Rights-of-Ways	TransCanada Corporation Scott Farris Director, Governmental Relations
	▪ Agriculture	Monsanto Company Eric Sachs Science & Policy Lead
	▪ Government of Canada	Parks Canada Gilles Seutin Chief Scientist, Ecosystem Sciences
	▪ US Conservation NGOs	Monarch Joint Venture Scott Black MJV Steering Committee Co-chair & Executive Director, The Xerces Society
	▪ Mexican Conservation NGO	World Wildlife Fund – Mexico Eduardo Rendón
	▪ Mexican States	State of Coahuila Eglantina Canales Secretary of the Environment
	▪ US State Fish & Wildlife Agencies	Texas Parks & Wildlife Department Ross Melinchuk Deputy Executive Director, Natural Resources Facilitator: Bryan Arroyo U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Assistant Director, International Affairs
10:35-11:00	Audience Q & A with Presenters & Panelists	